DETAILED ACTION

A response of 9/6/06 to a restriction requirement of 8/28/06 elected Group I claims 1-31 without traverse.

Claims 32-49 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 9/6/06.

Claims examined on the merits are 1-31.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Art Unit: 1657

Claims 1-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Li et al (6,303,136 B1) in view of O'Brien (7,014,807 B2) and Lewis et al (5,994,099) and Takezawa et al (5,736,399).

The claims are drawn to a fabric comprising a yarn comprising one or more sericin-extracted fibroin fibers that are biocompatible and non-randomly organized. The yarn promotes ingrowth of cells and is biodegradable.

Li et al disclose attaching cells to a filamentous matrix that can be made from various materials including silk (col 2, line 49 and col 4, line 18).

O'Brien discloses making yarn from fibroin fibers from which sericin has been extracted (col 2, line 64 and col 3, lines 45-48).

Lewis et al disclose preparing a matrix from silk for use in reconstruction of bone and connective tissue (col 21, lines 1-5).

Takezawa et al disclose using a silk mesh as a culture carrier (col 5, lines 56-60).

It would have been obvious to use as the filamentous matrix of Li et al a yarn produced from fibroin fibers from which sericin has been removed as disclosed by O'Brien in view of Lewis et al suggesting preparing a matrix for tissue reconstruction from silk and Takezawa et al using a silk mesh as a culture carrier. The conditions of dependent claims would have been matters of obvious choice in view of the disclosures of the references.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-31 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-19 of U.S. Patent No. 6,902,932 B2 in view of O'Brien.

The claims of the patent require a silk-fiber-based matrix composition comprising sericin-extracted silkworm fibroin fibers.

O'Brien is described as above.

It would have been obvious to provide the matrix of the claims of the patent as a fabric as suggested by O'Brien disclosing forming fabric from sericin-extracted silkworm fibroin fibers. The conditions of dependent claim would have been matters of obvious choice in view of the patent claims and O'Brien.
